To Whom It May Concern,

I appreciate the opportunity to present my resume and video reel for any current or future available position that you find I qualify for. I believe that my talents and abilities would be a valuable asset to your company. I strive for excellence in everything that I do. I am confident that your team will see me as someone who will do whatever it takes to get the job done in a timely manner while maintaining the highest level of quality and integrity.

My DVD demo contains more information about me including a biography, list of skills, character analysis, and goals. This will assist you in deciding whether or not I fit within your company's core values and agenda. My DVD demo also contains projects I have produced, directed, shot, and edited. With this letter I have included my resume and some examples of my writing abilities for your review.

I consider myself to be creative, organized, personable, multi-talented, and a quick learner. I look forward to the possibility of working with your company, and I appreciate you taking the time to consider me as a potential asset to your corporation. Please notice the last page of this document which consists of a list of satisfied clients that I have had the pleasure of working with. I am happy to provide as many references as you like. Thank you again for your time and review.

Sincerely,

Seth Wood
